

An Evening with Deacon Dick and Maureen Roy

Thursday, July 29 – 7:00 PM
In the Church Sanctuary

Have you ever wondered about, or been curious about, the diaconate? Many people may be unclear as to the origin and function of a deacon, and how they are trained or become a deacon. This gathering is open to anyone with curiosity regarding the diaconate. There will be an informal presentation to begin the evening, covering subjects such as:

- The life of a deacon and wife. “They never told me that!”
- The Calling. “How do I know if it truly is a call?”
- The deacon’s wife. “Is she called too?”
- The deacon’s role in the church, and what the future holds.
- The diaconate training experience. “How intense is it?”
- If interested, when should I apply?
- I’m ordained! “What is it like to get started?”

After the structured presentation, an opportunity to ask questions of both Deacon Dick and Maureen is planned. Detailed information about requirements, prerequisites to admission, and many other issues will be available. Young and old alike are welcome. If you have questions, please call Deacon Dick at 952-447-2491 or e-mail at: droy@stmichael-pl.org.

See you there!
